Re: Finger Oil & Gas, Inc. v. Mid-Continent Casualty Company, et al.; In the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas; Civil Action No. 5:20-CV-00712-XR

My name is Tom Hall. I have been a lawyer since being admitted to the Texas Bar in 1977. My practice has consisted of litigation of various sorts, including personal injury, commercial litigation, breach of contract and insurance law among others.

I am familiar with reasonable and necessary attorney's fees in pursuit of cases such as the one at bar as a result of my having been involved in many such cases over my career. I am aware that factors determining the reasonableness of a fee include:

- (1) the time and labor required, the novelty and difficulty of the questions involved, and the skill required to perform the legal service properly;
- (2) the likelihood ... that the acceptance of the particular employment will preclude other employment by the lawyer;
- (3) the fee customarily charged in the locality for similar legal services;
- (4) the amount involved and the results obtained;
- (5) the time limitations imposed by the client or by the circumstances;
- (6) the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client;
- (7) the experience, reputation, and ability of the lawyer or lawyers performing the services; and
- (8) whether the fee is fixed or contingent on results obtained or uncertainty of collection before the legal services have been rendered.

My contract with the Plaintiff in this case is a contingent fee arrangement, which contract had been previously produced in discovery to Defendants herein.

I have maintained time records in this case, a copy of which is attached hereto, and, to date, have spent 39.55 hours in this case. It is my opinion, based upon my education, background, training and experience, that those hours, to date, were necessary in pursuit of this claim, and that $400.00 an hour is a reasonable fee for my services, based upon my education, experience, background and training. I anticipate that, at the time of trial, that I will testify as to the reasonableness and necessity of attorney's fees through the trial of this case, and any appellate proceedings hereafter.

Sincerely,
